Steel Prospect Gloomy On Eve Of Ike Deadline

McDonald Says Union Will Fight Injunction Move

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—Steel negotiators despaired Wednesday of a strike peace pact on the eve of President Eisenhower's apparent deadline for government intervention under the Taft-Hartley Act.

President David J. McDonald of the United Steelworkers Union, saying a negotiated settlement seemed hopeless, sent the union's 170-man Wage Policy Committee home. The group would have to approve any new contract.

The on-and-off negotiations were again suspended with no further meetings in prospect to end the crippling 85-day strike, worst in steel history.

Neither the industry nor union would budge from its stands after a "summit meeting" between McDonald and top industry executives got nowhere Tuesday night.

Eisenhower said a week ago he wanted a settlement by the time he returns to Washington Thursday from a rest trip in Palm Springs, Calif.

McDonald said that if Eisenhower invokes the Taft-Hartley Act and seeks to stop the strike for 80 days under a court injunction, the USW will fight the injunction attempt in the courts.

"But if an injunction is issued, the United Steelworkers of America will obey the law of the land," the union chief said.

McDonald said the union still wants Eisenhower to steer clear of Taft-Hartley and, instead, name a public fact-finding board to recommend settlement terms. He said it would end the historic dispute more quickly and fairly.

Steel Shortage Growing
Eisenhower, however, has expressed distaste for McDonald's plan unless the industry joins the union in supporting it. Under the T-H law, an inquiry board would merely report strike facts without suggesting a solution.

The strike has idled 500,000 directly in the basic steel industry and some 200,000 indirectly in other industries, and the steel shortage was growing rapidly.

The magazine Iron Age said Wednesday it will be many weeks, even after the strike ends, before shipments resume prestrike levels.

Florida Coast In Storm Path

FORT WALTON BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Tropical storm Irene blew out of the Gulf of Mexico toward the northwest Florida beaches on Wednesday night with 55 mile per hour winds and high tides.

The vast upper Florida coast line braced for the blow. Irene, developed suddenly and grew rapidly Wednesday from a tropical depression into a full-blown tropical storm approaching hurricane strength.

There was little indication, however, that Irene would become a hurricane before hitting the mainland.

Squalls and rain broke over a most of northwest Florida in advance of the storm. All northwest Florida, southwest Georgia and southeast Alabama were expected to feel the blow.

At 6 p.m. e.d.t., Irene was centered 150 miles south of Mobile, Ala., moving to the north-northeast at 15 miles per hour.

Three Girls Feared Held By Gunmen

Teeners Believed Kidnaped By Two Convicts, Parolee

HELENA, Mont. (UPI)—Three "extremely dangerous and armed" men were feared Wednesday to have abducted three teenage Helena girls whom they apparently befriended through a mutual interest in horses.

Two of the men were escaped convicts from California and the third was a California parolee.

Authorities had been told the girls entered the men's car willingly Friday night. But a spokesman at the sheriff's office, who described the girls as "quiet, well behaved and trustworthy," said "there's a strong possibility these kids were abducted."

The disappearance of the girls was kept secret until Wednesday for fear the girls would be harmed. An extensive "secret search" has been under way since Friday night.

Three-State Alert

A car answering the description of the men's stolen pink auto was seen Wednesday night traveling on a dirt road out of town at Arco, Idaho. A service station attendant said he saw three men and three girls in the car.

An alert was broadcast to law officers in three states. Roadblocks were set up in Idaho.

The missing girls were Claudia Fuller, 17; Sharon Lee McDowell, 16; and Sharon Irene Balazs, 17, all of Helena.

The men, described by one of the girls' mothers as "so polite," were identified as George Roman Jan, 29, and Fran Henry Spicer, 24, escapees from at least two California penal institutions, and Frank Erwin Fisher, a parolee.

Wanted On Federal Warrants
The sheriff's office said the three men were wanted on federal warrants issued before the girls' disappearance.

Sheriff Dave Middlemas of Lewis and Clark County refused to say whether he thought the girls had been kidnapped. He said "they evidently got into the car of their own free will."

But the parents of the girls insisted "They would not have left town of their own free will. They must have been kidnaped."

Van Rie Enters Innocent Plea

BOSTON (UPI)—A young Dutchman pleaded innocent Wednesday to a first degree murder charge of killing a Chicago heiress in the aftermath of a shipboard love affair.

Willem M. L. Van Rie, radio operator aboard the Dutch freighter Utrecht was led back to jail to await trial for the slaying of pretty 23-year-old Lynn Kauffman. He is being held without bail.

An innocent plea is mandatory in Massachusetts in first degree murder cases where the penalty is death in the electric chair upon conviction unless the jury recommends mercy.

She vanished from the freighter Sept. 18 in Boston Harbor. Her body was found the next day. Tuesday it was turned over to her family and cremated.

Cremation of the body was a crucial stumbling block in the sensational case. Medical Examiner Michael Luongo, whose examination of the body convinced him Miss Kauffman was slain, released it to her family for cremation Tuesday because he said he could not legally hold it any longer.

Reds Say Lunik To Start Downward Swing Oct. 10

MOSCOW (UPI)—Russia's moon circling Lunik III sped farther out into space away from both moon and earth Wednesday, and will not start the downward swing of its vast orbit until Oct. 10, the Soviet Tass News Agency said on Wednesday.

The official news agency said Lunik III was "continuing to move strictly on the set orbit" planned by scientists who launched the rocket three days ago.

At 1 p.m. e.d.t., the "interplanetary station" was 78,293 miles from the moon and about 248,538 miles from the earth, Tass said.

"In passing the point of minimum distance from the moon, the automatic interplanetary station, in circling the moon, is continuing to move away from the earth and the moon," Tass said.

Thus the rocket continued for the moment to head out into space. The further movement away from the earth will continue, reaching a maximum distance equal to about 282,000 miles on Oct. 10, Tass said.

"Later on, the interplanetary station will begin to approach the earth and will pass it on Oct. 18 in a north-south direction," the news agency said. "It's shortest distance from the face of the earth will be 24,855 miles."

The latest information on the Soviet Union's third moon shot came during Wednesday's two-hour transmission from Lunik III between 10 a.m. and 12 noon e.d.t.

Tass said that data received on Tuesday and now processed firmly established that the instruments of scientific measurement, the system of thermo-control and the system of power feeding from solar and chemical batteries "continue to function normally."

Golden-Voiced Lanza, 38, Dies Of Heart Attack

ROME (AP)—Mario Lanza, a golden voiced boy from Philadelphia's "Little Italy" who encountered undreamed of woes at the peak of his climb from rags to riches, died Wednesday. He was 38.

Death was due to a heart attack at a time in life when he should have been at the top of his career. He long had been plagued by chronic overweight.

On the way up from the role of piano mover-truck driver, he made more than a million dollars in a year. Toscanini called him the greatest voice of the 20th century.

The tenor, whose movies and records made him an idol of both bobby soxers and serious music lovers, liked being called the reincarnation of the Italian opera star Enrico Caruso. His picture "The Great Caruso" grossed among the highest financial returns of any musical motion picture in film history.

During his three years residence in Rome, Lanza was hospitalized several times for illnesses ranging from a tooth infection to bad colds. He always had difficulty getting his weight down to an acceptable 180 or 185 pounds for movies and concert appearances. Friends said the constant reducing weakened his resistance.

Lanza's wife, Betty, was in a state of shock at the Lanza apartment. The couple had four children. The movie star's body will lie in state Thursday at the apartment.

His real name was Alfredo Arnold Cocozza. He made his debut as a professional singer in 1942 at the Berkshire Festival in Tanglewood, Mass. In World War II, when he was in military service, Lanza sang to troops as "The Caruso of the Air Force."

He made an operatic debut in Puccini's "Madam Butterfly" in New Orleans after the war, but then went into movies.

Chou Sends Warm Message To Nehru
NEW DELHI, India (AP)—In a warm message to Prime Minister Nehru, Premier Chou En-lai of Red China calls the India-Chinese border dispute "merely an episode in our age-old friendship."

The note was in sharp contrast with one he had sent Nehru last month accusing India of "continuing the imperialist policies" of the British.

Chou's message replied to Nehru's greetings last week on the occasion of the 10th anniversary of the founding of the Communist government in China.

Chou said he reciprocated Nehru's "hope and conviction that, through joint efforts of both parties, the friendship of the Chinese and Indian peoples will undoubtedly grow continuously in the coming years."

TV Producer Fired; Declined To Swear Quiz Show On Level

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Broadcasting Co. has fired York City, called such testimony the producer of a quiz show currently on the air because he would not swear there has been no coaching of contestants. House probes were told Wednesday night.

The producer was named as Howard Felsher of the television show "Tic Tac Dough."

Thomas E. Ervin, vice president and general counsel of NBC, told a House subcommittee that in a general checkup of NBC quiz programs, he asked Felsher for a sworn statement that no contestants on "Tic Tac Dough" had been given advance answers to questions.

Ervin said Felsher would not give such a statement, "So we fired him."

"Tic Tac Dough" is one of several quiz shows whose production was taken over by NBC after scandals involving other similar programs.

Two press agents for one of these shows, the defunct "Twenty-One," told the subcommittee their lawyer told them not to tell New York authorities the truth about whether that program was rigged by feeding correct answers to contestants beforehand. The press relations men were Alfred Davis and Arthur Franklin.

The balding, 36-year-old Davis was the first witness officially connected with the show to admit publicly that it was not on the level.

He said he had no reason to believe that the National Broadcasting Co., which carried the program, knew of any rigging but was interested primarily in headlining off unfavorable publicity. His election betting favorites since World War II.

Davis said Slot had advised him to get out of town—"as far away as possible."

The two one-shot winners who followed Davis on the witness stand were Mrs. Rose Leibrand of victory went up from 2-1 to 9-4. A Washington and Richard Jackson bettor could win $9 by putting up of New York.

Dillon Warns Chinese Reds
NEW YORK (UPI)—Undersecretary of State Douglas Dillon bluntly warned the Chinese Communists Wednesday that an attack on Formosa would "likely" start a world nuclear conflict.

Dillon issued the warning in a major speech in which he also read a message from President Eisenhower calling for "constant vigilance" in the Far East to preserve peace.

Dillon spoke before the Far East - America Council of Commerce and Industry.

In a bitter attack on Communist China, he said the Peiping regime has shown "absolutely no disposition to make the slightest move toward an agreement on a cease-fire (in the Formosa straits) or a renunciation of force."

Dillon noted Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's pledge to settle international problems by peaceful means and warned that the Kremlin must "share responsibility for Peiping's actions."

Boy Dies When Metal Cabinet Falls On Him

BALTIMORE (AP)—A 4-year-old boy was killed Wednesday when a large metal cabinet-type box fell on him while he was playing in a lot near an auto sales agency.

Police said the boy, Stephen LaCompte, was dead on arrival at Lutheran Hospital. He apparently suffered a broken neck and head injuries.

British Election Day Finds Both Sides Confident

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Conservatives, the odds-on betting favorites, nervously expected Wednesday night to win five more years of power in a national election Thursday.

The Conservatives were just a shade more confident than Hugh Gaitskill's Laborites, who also claimed they could smell victory in the air.

In the two headquarters, campaign directors studied last-minute reports from canvassers and privately came up with these conflicting assessments:

The voters will give the Conservatives a 40-seat margin over all other parties in the new 630-seat House of Commons. This would represent a drop of 13 seats but would be ample to keep Macmillan comfortably in the saddle as prime minister.

The Laborites will win with a 20-seat edge. This would put Gaitskill in as prime minister and him instead of Macmillan to represent Britain at any summit conference.

Behind their facade of optimism the two sides conceded the election could produce a photo finish. In that event the handful of Liberals in Parliament would be able to throw in with one side or the other—to determine whether Britain's top executive job went to Macmillan or Gaitskill.

Both Liberal and Conservative party workers set doorbells ringing in a final effort to win support by the vote of uncommitted voters. The three-week campaign closed with many signs indicating it could go either way.

But the bookmakers, whose business is legal in Britain, viewed the Conservatives as the hottest election betting favorites since World War II.

One big bookmaker would offer 4-11 against a Conservative victory. This means a bettor had to put up the equivalent of $11 post to win $4.

The odds against a Labor party stand were Mrs. Rose Leibrand of victory went up from 2-1 to 9-4. A Washington and Richard Jackson bettor could win $9 by putting up of New York.

Mr. K Says Summit Talks May Be Called This Year

MOSCOW (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said a summit meeting "may apparently be called this autumn or winter" in a speech released Wednesday by the official Tass news agency.

Khrushchev, en route to Moscow from Red China and the United States, made his speech Tuesday in Vladivostok.

"The summit meeting which we may apparently call this autumn or winter will exchange of views on problems of the peoples," he said.

"Everything must be done to establish lasting peace," Khrushchev praised President Eisenhower "for inviting him to the summit reference in the reserve his country and in expressing a desire to come to the Soviet Union."

He added that "only an unreasonable person can be fearless of war" and that Eisenhower had admitted he was "very much afraid of war."

"It is another matter if war is imposed on a nation," he said. "In this case, it should not be feared because this would be tantamount to death. The freedom and independence of one's homeland should be defended valiantly."

Khrushchev did not elaborate on the summit reference in the reserve his country and in expressing a desire to come to the Soviet Union.

Fact-Finders Draft Report To President

Justice Department Ready To Seek T-H Injunction Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's fact-finders worked at top speed Wednesday night to deliver to the White House a report designed to send 85,000 striking dock workers back to work under a court order.

The Justice Department officials stood ready to seek the Taft-Hartley Act injunction Thursday in Federal District Court in New York City.

The three-man fact-finding panel zipped through a public hearing on the week - old International Longshoremen's Assn. strike in 13½ hours. Then the panel members started to draft their report to President Eisenhower. Under the Taft-Hartley law's emergency machinery, the fact-finders' report must precede court action.

Tieup Could Halt Friday

If federal court agrees to order an 80-day cooling off period, longshore work gangs may start Friday to move the piled-up cargoes which have been choking Atlantic ports from Maine to Texas for the last week. The injunction requires the 80-day truce for working and negotiation.

The panel heard sharp conflicts of testimony in its high-speed inquiry during the morning. Then Chairman Guy Farmer appealed to the parties to seek an early, peaceful settlement.

But in New York, President William V. Bradley of the longshore union said that since the Taft-Hartley machinery is already rolling, he could "see no reason why we should resume" negotiations.

The ILA counsel, Louis Waldman of New York, accused the employers of seeking wholesale elimination of longshore jobs, of refusing to bargain, and trying to "set the labor clock back 25 years."

Strike Illegal, Shippers Say
Alexander P. Chopin, chairman of the New York Shipping Assn., Inc., charged that the union walked out "illegally and irresponsibly."

The Oct. 1 walkout, Chopin said, violated an agreement to extend the contract for 15 days beyond its expiration date at midnight last Wednesday.

There seemed no doubt that Eisenhower would have to use the Taft-Hartley Act to halt, at least for a time, strikes which imperil the public health or safety.

Waldman called utterly inadequate the employer offer of a 30-cent wage, pension, welfare and vacation package over three years — 20 cents the first year, 5 cents in each of the next two years. Basic New York wages have been $2.80 an hour.

Moreover, the ILA lawyer said, the employer offer was conditioned on the union's giving dock employers a free hand to institute new labor-savings systems and machinery.

Two Die In Gas Tank Explosion

COLUMBUS, Ga. (UPI)—Four persons were turned into flaming torches Wednesday when a spectacular fire raced through a Gulf Oil storage plant here. Two persons were killed in the holocaust and three seriously injured.

Police officer Earl Kinsman, first of the rescue workers to reach the scene, called it the "goriest sight I've ever witnessed."

The remains of one workman, T. W. Dubose, a Negro, were recovered from the rubble. Also killed was Otis A. Robinson, a white workman. Robinson died at a hospital several hours after he was rescued.

Those injured were identified as Mrs. J. B. Harper, an office worker; Fred W. Mitchell, office manager; L. B. Garrett and Melvin Taylor, both truck drivers. Taylor required only first aid, but the others were reported near death.

The roaring blaze threatened a congested industrial area for more than an hour and shot billowing clouds of black smoke hundreds of feet into the air.

Grady Calls Off Campaign Killer Who Fled Pa. Pen Added To 'Top 10' List

BALTIMORE (AP) — Mayor J. Grady said a chance to stand up and be counted.

Grady said an earnings tax "would have been fair and equitable to the city," but Tawes would consider only one paid solely by city residents, with county residents who make their living in the city exempted from the levy.

"Such a restricted tax," Grady said, "is completely unacceptable to the city administration and to the people of Baltimore."

There were indications the city tax on real estate will go up about 15 cents above the present record rate of $3.34 per $100 of assessed valuation. Other taxes would include a levy on residential users of gas, electricity, telephones and fuel and a tax on bank deposits.

This combination, plus so-called "nuisance taxes," could produce about nine million dollars. The city administration contends that 13 million is the minimum needed to balance the new budget.

He accused Tawes of adopting the "narrow view of certain county legislators" concerning an earnings tax "without giving the whole

Killer Who Fled Pa. Pen Added To 'Top 10' List

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A 31-year-old shotgun murderer with a lengthy crime career, who has warned he would kill again, on Wednesday was placed on the FBI's list of 10 most wanted criminals.

Smith Gerald Hudson, who turned to crime when he was 16 and murdered a man at 23, has been at large since escaping from the Pennsylvania State Penitentiary more than a year ago.

The FBI said the fugitive must be considered armed, extremely dangerous and "capable of killing without hesitation."

Hudson's threats have spread terror among his relatives. Since his escape, one fearful family member reportedly sleeps with a gun within easy reach and another has obtained a permit and purchased a pistol.

Hudson left a note at the time he killed an acquaintance saying: "I love my wife but she left so I am going to kill some of those people on the hill then I am going to kill myself."

The murder occurred in the Scranton, Pa., area in 1951 after Hudson quarreled with a friend, knocked him down and tried to strangle him. Hudson left and returned 20 minutes later with a double barreled shotgun. He blew his antagonist's head off.

He fled but was arrested four months later and in March, 1952, was sent to the penitentiary. He escaped and hit out for the Pennsylvania hill country on Aug. 2, 1957.

Hudson began his criminal fling at 16, at first specializing in car thefts over a wide area of the eastern states.

Surgeon, Girl Friend Indicted For Murder

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A grand jury indicted a wealthy surgeon and his paramour on murder charges Wednesday. It accused Dr. R. Bernard Finch and his former receptionist, Carole Tregoff, of slaying the doctor's wife, Barbara.

The indictment followed two days of testimony.

One witness reportedly said Miss Tregoff offered him $1,400 to do the killing. He said he took money, but didn't kill Finch's wife.

Another witness reportedly said Miss Tregoff asked him to find her "a couple of tough guys."

Dr. Finch, 41, and Miss Tregoff, 22, already had been charged with murder in the July 18 gunshot death at the Finch's estate in nearby West Covina.

The main witness Tuesday was Jack P. Cody, 29, Minneapolis, Minn., convict. He reportedly repeated his statement to police that Miss Tregoff offered him $1,400 for the slaying, that he accepted $1,180 and then skipped town.

West Welcomes Soviet Space Conference Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) Tuesday the Soviet stand is —The United States and Britain unchanged.

Wednesday welcomed a Soviet proposal for an international scientific conference on outer space. This boost from the West virtually assured that such a conference would take place.

Vasily V. Kuznetsov, Soviet deputy foreign minister, disclosed the proposal in a speech to the U.N. General Assembly Tuesday.

He said the Soviet Union would seek a conference under U.N. auspices as soon as possible. It would be along the lines of the U.N. conferences on peaceful uses of atomic energy—a plan advanced originally by President Eisenhower.

"We welcome this new departure in Soviet policy and hope that it means cooperation in the future work of the United Nations in the field of outer space," U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge said in a statement.

He declared the United States still supports strongly the establishment by the present assembly of a special U.N. space committee.

The Soviet Union boycotted a committee set up last year on the grounds Communist and neutral nations did not have sufficient representation. Kuznetsov said

Subway Train Trouble Found By TV Cameras

NEW YORK (AP)—The Transit Authority is using television to get a look under subway trains at moving parts that have given trouble.

Cameras are fastened underneath trains, focusing on the mechanism. The pictures are transmitted to monitor screens in the car above.

Television was credited by the authority with solving the 50-year-old problem of why so many motors were burning out on one line. After several months of televising, engineers discovered the trouble was in the commutator switch, which is part of the motor speed control system.

The project has cost about $10,000.

Guard Fires Back At AF Gen. LeMay

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—The National Guard Assn. of the United States demanded Wednesday steps to re-evaluate the qualifications and continued usefulness of Air Force Gen. Curtis LeMay.

A sizzling resolution adopted at the Guardsmen's 81st general conference denounced statements by LeMay, second ranking officer in the Air Force as vice chief of staff.

Association members refused to accept an Air Force explanation that LeMay, in stating the National Guard was not efficient and "cannot live," merely sought to stimulate thought.

Before coffee was used as a beverage, it was a medicine, a wine and a food.

Utility Refund Case Pressed

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Gas and Electric Co. was ordered Wednesday by the Public Service Commission to explain why it shouldn't be directed to refund about 24 million dollars to its customers.

Peoples Counsel Wilfred T. McQuaid argued on Sept. 24 that the concern earned this sum in excess of its authorized rate of return.

The company also was ordered by the PSC to show cause within 20 days why it should not be directed to file a revised schedule of rates producing revenue in accordance with a commission order.

McQuaid said the excess profits were made in the fiscal year ended last July 31.

At the same time, the commission denied McQuaid's request that it reopen an earlier case, saying the rates involved were the same as those now in dispute. On April 9, while the earlier case was pending on appeal in court, the company filed a new rate schedule identical to the one under litigation.

Fifteen days later the PSC suspended the schedule and started proceedings affecting the suspended rates.

Immediately after the filing the group went to work to build a "grass roots" organization in support of the governor.

Dancer Insists $700 Check Had Farmer's Okay

BALTIMORE (AP)—A 28-year-old night club dancer testified in Criminal Court Wednesday that an admiring farmer authorized her to fill out a check for $700.

Mrs. Dolores Buckwald, red-haired mother of three, testified for an hour at her trial on a charge of forging the check.

After she left the stand at midday, the trial was recessed until sometime next week. Judge Joseph Allen said he wants Glenn W. White, 68, farmer of Federalburg, to take the stand again.

Mrs. Buckwald admitted that she was married at the time she said she received the check from White. She also said she was living with a Baltimore real estate man.

"Mr. White gave the impression that he was very wealthy," she told the court, "and I had three children to support. So, I considered marrying him if I could get my marriage affairs straightened out."

She insisted under repeated questioning that White authorized her to fill out the check for $700.

Mrs. Buckwald also admitted that she had been convicted on bad check charges on three other occasions during the past few years.

White testified Tuesday that he met the dancer during one of his visits to Baltimore and that he showered her with many checks and cash. He said most of the checks he gave Mrs. Buckwald were to buy clothing and shoes for her children.

Prosecutor James W. Murphy noted that the check stub White retained showed an entry for $26.43 for the check which was actually made out for $700.

'Dean' Of W.Va. Convicts Again Denied Parole

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—The man who has been in prison longer than anyone else in the West Virginia penal system will have to serve at least another year.

William Hollie Griffith, 67, again has been denied parole by the State Board of Probation and Parole.

Griffith, who is in the Medium Security Prison at Huttonsville, is serving life sentences for three murders. He was transferred to Huttonsville last April from the State Penitentiary at Moundsville. Griffith had been at Moundsville since 1915, except for three weeks after an escape in 1921.

Parole Board Chairman John S. Holy said the board acted Tuesday in Griffith's case after interviewing him at Huttonsville. In keeping with board policy, Holy did not disclose its reason for turning Griffith down.

Griffith can look forward to being considered again in a year. Law requires the board to interview each eligible prisoner once a year.

Griffith originally was convicted of the murder of a Braxton County policeman in 1915. He drew two more murder sentences after his escape in 1921 and recapture in Columbia, S.C. One was for killing another prisoner, who was found with his throat cut after the escape. The other was for killing a boatman at Point Pleasant allegedly to get his boat.

401st Traffic Death

BALTIMORE (AP)—A 32-year-old woman died in a Baltimore Hospital Tuesday, becoming the 401st traffic fatality of 1959.

The victim was Mrs. Bertha K. Sienkiewicz, who was injured when her car went out of control on the Baltimore County Beltway, hit a highway divider and overturned. She was alone.

State Highway Officials Study Billboard Law

BALTIMORE (AP)—State highway officials began a review Wednesday of new federal anti-billboard laws to take necessary steps to avoid losing three million dollars in federal bonus funds.

Since the 1959 General Assembly enacted sign controls, the federal regulations have been strengthened. There is a question now whether Maryland is eligible for the bonuses for highway work.

State Roads Commission Chairman John B. Funk said the new federal act "must be fully digested" before SRC officials can determine if Maryland is complying with the rules.

The SRC also announced Wednesday it had started advertising for bids on 17 projects which are expected to cost more than 15 million dollars. They are located in 12 counties.

The bonus payments are part of the Interstate Highways Act and are an incentive to the states to keep billboards away from federally-supported express roads.

A Bureau of Public Roads spokesman said Maryland's law is

Merit System For Auto Insurance Facing Snag

BALTIMORE (AP)—A Maryland insurance official believes a merit system for automobile insurance premiums could not go into effect until unqualified drivers are removed from the highways. Edward Rosenberg, president of the Maryland Indemnity and Fire Insurance Exchange, said Wednesday only a token reduction in premiums would be possible for good drivers unless chronic violators are kept off the roads.

He said the poor drivers keep the base rate for insurance premiums on a steady increase. "As weak because the SRC is unable to regulate the content of billboards."

Maryland law also provides no controls over signs erected by property owners on their lands and the state doesn't impose a limit on the number of signs that may be erected to advertise or lease property.

The federal bonuses amount to one-half of one per cent of the highway project's cost. No state has yet taken advantage of the for leniency on grounds that he had three wives to support.

Introducing the New-Size Ford...

the 1960 Ford Falcon

Meet the New-size Ford—the Falcon! Here's a car with plenty of room for six big adults and all their luggage. It's sized to handle and park like a "small" car . . . powered to pass and climb like a "big" car . . . and built like no other car for savings!

It gives you up to 30 miles per gallon on regular gas. Aluminized mufflers normally last twice as long as ordinary kinds. A Full-Flow oil filter lets you go 4,000 miles between oil changes. Even insurance can cost you less! And this Falcon is the world's most experienced new car. It was driven over every mile of numbered Federal Highway in EXPERIENCE RUN, U.S.A.—a grueling demonstration climaxing Ford's 3 years and $3 million miles of research and testing.

The Falcon has the features that American car buyers expect. Its gearshift is on the steering column—not on the floor. Its engine is located up front for greater stability and safety. Best news of all is the Falcon's low, low price. See it at your Ford Dealer's!

Remember the ten points of feminine appeal!

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Winning The Public

It's just human nature to want to give only the best to the woman who is well groomed and charming. Better than words, her pleasant manner and appearance tell others that she thinks highly of them. By satisfying the deep-seated desire that is in everyone for respect and recognition, she earns and is accorded the highest opinion of others, wherever she goes.

Before you sally forth to meet your public daily, make a rapid check of the magic ten points of feminine appeal. You can do it in seconds, just by answering the following questions honestly every day: (Stick this list on your mirror until you know it by heart!)

1. Is my facial expression pleasant, yet free from even a trace of a grin or smirk? 2. Is my voice low but audible without a single harsh-sounding tone? 3. Is my sense of humor ready for a good laugh without a giggle or a guffaw? 4. Is my conversation fresh with a choice of words that say exactly what I have in mind, and unhampered by hackneyed or incorrect expressions? 5. Is my manner warm, alert and receptive, yet with no loss of dignity? 6. Are my clothes becoming to me and suitable to the occasion, but never too man-tailored in the daytime nor too fussy after five? (Business girls: Send for the clothes counsel given in "Steps to a Successful Career." See directions below.) 7. Are my clothes pressed, clean and fragrant with no detail that needs mending or care? 8. Is my hair shining and groomed in an unexaggerated and becoming style? 9. Are my cosmetics applied with an eye for naturalness, a clean lipline and without a made-up look? 10. Do my hands refrain from fidgeting in unnecessary gestures, even though groomed to a show-off perfection.

If your answer is "yes" to all ten, congratulations! You're the girl everybody wants to have around!

Hair Specialist Here Tomorrow; Will Show How To Save Hair and Prevent Baldness

C. L. CLARK, representing the Lesley Hair and Scalp Specialists, will personally examine hair-worried men and women from 1:00 to 8:30 P. M., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1959 only at the FORT CUMBERLAND HOTEL in CUMBERLAND, MARYLAND.

The Lesley Specialists point out that remarkable results have been attained by means of a personal examination followed by simple individual treatments that anyone can easily carry out in the privacy of his or her own home. Regular checkups in your city by a Lesley Specialist assure success in the minimum period of time.

WHAT CAUSES BALDNESS

Actually, the two most common causes of baldness are neglect and mistreatment of the hair.

Baldness in its common forms does not come suddenly; it is a gradual starvation and shrinking of the hair follicles until no hair growing ability remains. Hair loss begins with its warning signs of dandruff, itchy or tender scalp, falling hair, or an excessive oily or dry scalp. Once these symptoms are noticed, immediate steps should be taken to check these growth-destroying conditions before fatal follicle shrinkage ruins all hopes for hair replacement.

FREE EXAMINATION
You incur absolutely no charge or obligation by coming in for an examination. Your only obligation is to yourself. We'll tell you frankly if there's no chance of helping you. We do not accept helpless cases.

With Lesley's home treatment you can put your scalp in a healthy, hair-growing condition. What's more, Lesley's method of hair care will enable you to keep it that way.

WRITTEN GUARANTEE
The Lesley Organization gives a written guarantee when you are accepted for a scalp treatment. You must be satisfied within 30 days or money will be refunded.

DON'T PUT IT OFF
Stop by the Hotel FORT CUMBERLAND FRIDAY only, OCT. 9, 1959 between 1:00 P. M. and 8:30 P. M. Ask the desk for Mr. CLARK's room number. He does not work by appointment. Come at your convenience. Examinations are given privately. You will not be obligated or embarrassed in any way.

R. H. Maun Retires From Potomac Edison

Raymond H. Maun, veteran employee of the Potomac Edison Company, has retired from active service with the utility company.

A veteran of over 35 years, Maun, after a brief period with the predecessor Chambersburg, Greencastle and Waynesboro Railway Company, joined PE in 1925 as an electric helper in the construction department in Hagerstown.

He transferred to the Cumberland power operations in 1937 and remained in that department until his retirement. During his period of service here, Maun was associated primarily with the power plant operations at Celanese.

He is a native of Shady Grove, Pa., and resides at RD 6, Cumberland.

SRC To Seek Bids On Thruway Section

Bids for the construction of the first phase of the crosstown expressway section of the Cumberland Thruway will be advertised soon.

That calls for the building of one ramp of the Willowbrook Road interchange Route 40 at Lindernville.

It was among the three projects prepared for bidders by the State Roads Commission Tuesday in Baltimore.

Virtually no new projects have been advertised since spring. The commission called the halt when it discovered some $29,000,000 in projects on which bids were asked in 1958. These would have required most of the agency's resources for 1959.

The industrial boulevard section of the thruway is well on its way from Route 51 toward Williams Street.

A car with major advances in transmission, suspension, brakes, and engines which are Buick's alone today
A solid, substantial car • A car of superb comfort, quiet, reliability • A car you should drive soon

NEW COMFORT, QUIETNESS, AND QUALITY

Doors that open wider—easier to get in and out. Family-size interior. Seats that are higher, more deeply cushioned, and repositioned to provide more comfort for feet and legs. Separate rear seat heat control. Careful comparisons indicate today's Buick, with its extensive use of insulation and torque-tube drive is perhaps the quietest running, smoothest riding car in America. Buick's modern program of quality control comes to a peak in the Turbine Drive Buick '60.

NEW INTERIOR DECOR AND CONVENIENCE

An entirely new "Mirromagic" instrument panel. Fastest "information center" yet devised, it lets the driver see speed, gas gauge, and other necessary readings at a glance in a mirror he tilts to suit his own eye level. And a new exclusive safety option—the Twilight Sentinel*—that turns headlights on automatically at sunset . . . off automatically at sunrise. All-new colors and fabrics. Richer appointments such as wall-to-wall carpet in Electra, Invicta, and LeSabre.

*At slight extra cost.

OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCE AND ECONOMY

2. Buick's Exclusive Air-Flo Aluminum Drum Brakes—found on no other American car. Fin-cooled drums front and rear for faster cooling. Fast cooling means safer stopping, longer brake life. Slotted wheels pass a current of air from under the car constantly over the brakes for added cooling efficiency. (Wheels are 15" size which gives you up to 1/3 more tire life.)

3. Buick's exclusive Wildcat Engines give high efficiency with high economy. (An optional new LeSabre Engine gives more miles per gasoline dollar because it is designed to provide Buick performance on lower cost regular grade fuel.)

*Optional at extra cost on LeSabre, standard on Invicta and Electra.

Settlement Is Made In Accident Case

A settlement was reached this week by counsel in an accident compensation case before the Maryland Workmen's Compensation Commission that involved a one-car accident near Cumberland.

Paul M. Cowgill Jr., Charleston, an attorney with the right-of-way department of the West Virginia State Road Commission, filed the claim as a result of injuries suffered in August 24, 1956 when he was an employee of the Commercial Credit Corporation.

Cowgill's car crashed during the course of his employment when he was near Cumberland. He suffered facial lacerations and injuries and a head injury.

The first hearing was held on March 16 before the commission. An award in his favor was made by the commission on May 27 and a new hearing was held July 30 on a question that the award was based on an error of law.

This week in Baltimore before the commission a settlement was reached by counsel for Cowgill and the Commercial Credit Corporation in the amount of $8,500.

The Charleston attorney was represented by C. William Gilchrist, local lawyer, while Commercial Credit had Fred H. Anderson of here and Donald L. Merriman of Baltimore as counsel.

Bishop Oxnam Speaks Here Tomorrow

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam will speak Friday at Centre Street Methodist Church.

The bishop has called a series of meetings within the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Church to raise $350,000 toward a new library for Western Maryland College, Westminster. Dr. Paul F. Warner, superintendent of the district, will preside.

Also speaking at the bishop's meeting will be Dr. Lowell S. Ensor, president of Western Maryland. The proposed building to be constructed on the college campus will cost approximately $750,000. Western Maryland has a fund which has grown to $400,000 and will be available when needed.

The Baltimore Conference voted unanimously at its June 1959 session that raising money for the library will be the major financial emphasis during the next quadrennium. Western Maryland is one of three Methodist church-related schools within the conference.

Picnic Kits Used Often

The picnic season is officially over, according to the calendar and not the current weather, and the City Recreation Department yesterday released a report on the use of the picnic kit service.

There were a total of 106 kits distributed at various times, involving 2,018 pieces of equipment, and these were used by an estimated 28,925 persons.

Church groups led the types of organizations using the service. There were 30 of these followed by 18 to business firms; families, 14; industrial firms, 13; civic groups, 10; labor groups, 8; clubs, 5; Boy Scout troops, 4; and family reunions, 3.

The procedure, according to Mrs. Eva Hogan, playground supervisor, has been for the group to make the request for a kit in advance.

Then a deposit is taken by the Recreation Department to insure prompt return, and to pay for lost or broken equipment.

The service is available from May through September. Equipment available includes: softball, bats, balls, glove, bases and catcher's mask; badminton, rackets, nets and birdies; volleyball, ball and net; horseshoes and pegs, tug of war rope, and sacks for races.

David Arthur Shaffer, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee B. Shaffer, RD 2, Oakland. Davis is a graduate of Southern High School, and enlisted in the Navy with a school guarantee. David has a brother who has been in the Navy for 18 years and at present holds the rank of lieutenant commander in the Supply Corp.

Ronald Miles Orndorff, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Orndorff, Railroad Street, Mt. Savage. Ronald is a graduate of Mt. Savage High School. He enlisted in the airman field with a school guarantee.

Chief Elliott also stated that those enlisting now may be able to finish their recruit training and be home for the Christmas holiday. For further information, contact the Navy Recruiting Office, Post Office Building, Cumberland.

Lack Of Action On Potomac River Problems Cited By Del. Machen

HAGERSTOWN (AP)—The chairman of the Legislative Council's Committee on the Potomac River said Tuesday night that the delays shown by many agencies in dealing with the river's problems amount to "criminal negligence."

Del. Hervey Machen (D-Prince Georges) said many conflicting interests are involved and only a "piecemeal" job has been done toward solution of river problems involving pollution, soil erosion, water supply and recreation. Machen proposed joint action by agencies of Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, the District of Columbia and the federal government.

"Ours is the only major river in the United States which does not have a comprehensive development for the ultimate good of all the people," Machen told a dinner meeting of his committee. The committee toured the Washington County area of the river Tuesday and ended its two-day trip in Allegany County yesterday.

Machen said it is the task of his group not so much to take specific action as to arouse other agencies concerned to take joint action.

Rep. John R. Foley (D-6th) outlined to the group the history of recent efforts to solve the river's problems. He urged local governments to voice their enthusiasm for a plan to build three new dams in the North Branch of the river.

He said that program could serve as a pattern for future development of the whole Potomac. Foley said he does not expect the latest resurvey of the river by the Army Corps of Engineers to be completed until 1963. But he said "we are now reaching the beginning of the end of all these studies."

Baltimore Bus Hits Truck; 10 Shaken Up

BALTIMORE (AP)—A transit bus ran through a stop sign during the morning rush hour Wednesday and smashed the side of a truck. A dozen or so passengers on the bus were shaken up, and the driver of the truck was taken to a hospital for X-rays.

The bus driver, Richard G. Berkemeyer, 24, told police the bus brakes failed. He was charged with failing to grant right of way. The truck, loaded with rolls of brown paper, was tipped on its side by the impact.

Last Monday a transit trolley ran out of control for two blocks in the downtown section, ramming eight cars and injuring 10 persons.

Ann Landers . . .

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Millions read you daily and this is the best way my wife and I can think of to alert people to a serious danger.

Please, warn couples who wish to adopt children to work ONLY with welfare agencies and authorized homes.

Our daughter was obtained through a "connection," and there was hell to pay. This beautiful, healthy child was the light of our lives for four years.

Last March her blood-mother popped up out of nowhere. When she saw the child she said she'd turn the world upside down to get her away. She claimed she was in an emotional state when she agreed to let us have her, and that she was not responsible for her decision.

It resulted in a messy court fight—and we lost. Before the child was born the mother gave her solemn word she'd never see the child or bother us in any way. We paid her hospital expenses, bought her a ticket to a city 2,500 miles away, and saw to it that she was employed. We gave her $1,000 and the "friend" who brought us together got $2,000.

Crooks who deal in black-market babies are the lowest form of life. We'll never get over wondering how our little girl is, and what her life is like. This is a terrible price to pay for ignorance and eagerness to have a child.—Y.J.T.

DEAR Y. J. T.: Thank you for writing. This is not the first such letter that has appeared in this space, but the problem is indeed a serious one, and worth repeating.

I like a certain fellow very much even though he is a bit of a show-off. This is my biggest problem with him: I feel like a fool when we dance together because he insists on doing all the fast and complicated steps even though I've told him a hundred times I can't follow him.

I have threatened to walk off the floor when he starts that stuff, but I haven't the nerve to do it. It's awfully embarrassing to stumble around on the dance floor with a guy everybody knows is a great dancer. What do you suggest?—LEFT LEG

DEAR LEFT: I know the type—they don't need a partner because they always seem to be doing a solo.

A good dancer should stick to the simple steps out of consideration for the mediocre partners—like you and me. If Astaire ignores your pleas and insists on trying for the cup every time, just walk off the floor and leave him standing there.

DEAR ANN: Am I right or wrong? Our daughter is 20, and works in a department store. She rides home almost every night with the yard-goods buyer who is old enough to be her father.

The lady across the street told me Rosetta kisses the man every night before she gets out of the car. I didn't believe it so I watched from behind the curtain.

Rosetta admitted it readily and said the man means nothing to her and that the kiss is his idea of friendly payment for the ride. She says I'm old-fashioned and evil-minded. Am I?—MA

DEAR MA: Tell Rosetta that a verbal thank you is enough and to stop kidding herself. The man sounds like a lecherous old coot and public transportation may be cheaper in the long run.

Are you tempted to smoke because you're fat and overweight?

Now available to you, our drug called ODRINEX. You must lose ugly fat in 7 days or your money back. No more strenuous exercise, laxatives, massage or taking of so-called reducing candies, crackers or cookies, or chewing gum. ODRINEX is a tiny tablet and easily swallowed. When you take ODRINEX, you still enjoy your meals, still eat the foods you like, but you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because ODRINEX depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food. ## A Need For Good Adult Leadership

In towns and cities everywhere items frequently appear in the local newspapers appealing to adults to volunteer for leadership in carrying on youth activities. The call is no louder in smaller cities than in metropolitan centers.

A Boy Scout or Girl Scout troop folds because no adult leader comes forward to replace the one who moved away. One Sunday school class merges with another because an additional teacher is not available. A youth activity unit is about to quit because of the lack of a director and chaperon.

There is no shortage of teen-agers eager to participate in the youth activities which are directed toward good citizenship, clean living, better health, acceptable amusement and correct social guidance. There are plenty of campgrounds, athletic fields and buildings in which to carry on the programs. People willingly contribute money to support youth activities. The only shortage seems to be fathers and mothers who are not "too busy" to assume leadership.

It may be time to slow up on viewing with alarm the trend so many boys and girls are following these days and reverse the order. Parents and other adults should re-examine their schedules of time and talent with a view to filling leadership posts.

Young people who find no experienced guiding hand and mind to lead them will seek and find paths of their own to follow.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

What Is A Cold War?

We have, for several years now, heard and seen millions of words about the "Cold War" and as is customary in these unargumentative days, we do not bother to ask, what is a Cold War? It seems impolite to require definitions; yet without defining our terms, we often move into a morass of verbiage.

As Clausewitz points out insistently in his book on war, its principal objective is to destroy the will of an enemy to resist. He said:

"... the hostile tension and the activity of hostile agencies, cannot be regarded as ended so long as the will of the enemy is not subdued ..."

In most wars, this is accomplished by military action, by fighting, by killing, by burning. But these means need not be employed. If the will of an enemy can be destroyed by other and less expensive means, it is sounder to use such means. The least expensive method is one that can achieve an objective without a loss of manpower or territory.

This is what is called the Cold War. It is a device developed by Soviet Russia, the object of which is to break the will of the United States to resist the imperialistic efforts of the Soviet Universal State. It started as an effort to achieve economic and social deterioration; in its current phase, its immediate goals are to depress the spirit of the American people and to frighten them. The principal weapons remain economic and psychological.

What is the meaning of Khrushchev's visit to the United States from the standpoint of these definitions? Khrushchev himself made nothing clear. His speeches were trite reaffirmations of his belief in Communism often stated in shockingly juvenile terms; or, they included boasts which cannot be substantiated by any available statistical data. Nothing was said which explains the urgency of the visit, except that the Cold War was moving to the brink of a military war.

A military war takes place for the purpose of disarming the enemy while keeping one's own powers intact. This can no longer be accomplished in any war that employs modern weapons, the destructive power of which affects both side, leaving power to neutral or to new nations. In a word, war does not pay those who fight it although war can benefit those who do not fight.

Khrushchev had adopted a new form of Communism, namely, one that completely disavows the world revolution. He states his form as peaceful competitive co-existence. In effect, he says: I believe that we can now conquer the world by peaceful means because socialism is superior to capitalism; let us not fight; let us compete and see which side wins.

This is not a retreat. It is a recognition that greater progress by Soviet Russia can be made in breaking the will to resist without resort to military means which can only destroy both countries. It would be fascinating to know how Khrushchev explained the American visit to Mao Tse-tung in Peking. For what he had to make clear to Mao was that he was in no manner retreating from the Marxist-Leninist line which must include the doctrine of the world revolution.

What we are dealing with is not a change of objective, but a change in tactics. The question must arise: What will happen if the present Seven Year Plan fails to overcome America's economic leadership?

No matter how decadent we may be or how obsolescent our plant may be, Soviet Russia and its satellites cannot in seven years (now really six) equal the productivity and the standards of life of the American people. The time is too short.

There is much talk these days about growth which leads to great confusion. If a country has no steel production at all and in a period of time, creates the plant to produce 1,000 tons of steel, its rates of growth is what? Would you say 1,000 per cent? But suppose a country produces 100,000,000 tons of steel and does not increase its plant at all because it does not need to, would you say its growth was nothing? And what do these figures prove? They do not prove that the backward country is moving faster than the forward country. Actually, the machinery of the backward country may have been purchased from the forward country. The rate of growth proves nothing and can be very confusing.

'Now - Just Cruise Around Capitol Hill'

Looking Toward A Summit--And Facing Facts

By Joseph Alsop

WASHINGTON
As the State Department has publicly admitted, all planning for the future meeting at the summit is being put off until the British elections. Then, and only then, will a time and place be chosen.

Nonetheless, the chances are good that the summit meeting will be held soon. President Eisenhower, for one thing, is anxious to get the rally on the heights over with before the next session of Congress. Thus the outlook is for a gathering in late November or early December, most probably in Geneva because of Gen. de Gaulle's objections to any discussion of European problems outside Europe.

The further outlook, in the opinion of the highest American authorities, is for a subsequent meeting of the Foreign Ministers or their deputies, to negotiate about Berlin and other urgent matters on the basis of new instructions agreed on at the summit.

Maybe Nikita S. Khrushchev's novel amiability will produce a different outcome. Yet a glance at the timetable forecast by the American policy makers is enough to show that the policy makers do not think the Eisenhower-Khrushchev meeting at Camp David created the conditions for a miracle at the summit.

There is the same meaning in the policy makers' insistence on the great importance of Khrushchev's promise that there would be "no fixed time limit" on future talks about Berlin. Relief because talking can go on indefinitely implies belief that the talks may have to be very protracted to attain a result. According to one authoritative official forecaster, the Berlin problem is quite likely to remain unsettled for another year and more—which should have interesting effects on the 1960 election.

Meanwhile, however, it begins to be possible to define with some confidence the new American negotiating position. A subtle but more important change of position began long before the Camp David talks. It offers the main hope of achievement at the summit and thereafter. In brief, the former American negotiating position was darkly haunted by the ghost of the "liberation" policy. The policy itself was always a political fake. It was quietly buried a few months after the Eisenhower administration took office, when the great opportunity of the East German rising in June 1953 was nervously rejected. But the ghost of this dead fake long remained a powerful specter, preventing any gesture that seemed to imply even de facto recognition of the post war status quo in Eastern Europe. This ghost, it seems, is now being laid by the President himself. We are really now preparing for a kind of informal recognition of status quo, including even unprotesting acceptance of a separate Soviet peace treaty with East Germany. But certain conditions must be fulfilled before the President will take this step.

The main condition to be fulfilled is guaranteeing the integrity and continuing freedom of West Berlin. On this point, the President is adamant. Mean-

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

It's official. The federal budget will be in balance for the year ending next June 30. This fact represents a great victory for President Eisenhower over the Democratic-controlled Congress. It also represents at least a temporary victory in the administration's fight against inflation.

When the President submitted his budget to Congress last January, he was assailed as "unrealistic" and there were even implications that his figures were dishonest. Charges were made that his proposed totals for federal spending were lower than would be the case and that he was unduly optimistic in estimating the size of federal revenues.

President Eisenhower always has been tough in the field of federal finances, but this year he was tougher and more adamant than ever. He spoke out on every occasion against the threat of further inflation implicit in big spending and consequent deficits.

As the year progressed it was apparent that America was emerging from the recession with greater speed than had been anticipated. Business was getting good surprisingly fast. Government revenues from individual and corporation incomes went up correspondingly. Recovery was the greatest single factor in assuring a balanced budget.

But the increased flow of dollars into the treasury did not cause Mr. Eisenhower to ease up on his demands for economy in government spending. He continued to oppose Congress' big spending plans for public works, airports, housing and other domestic programs. He opposed them through his lieutenants on Capitol Hill and, when necessary, by use of his veto power.

The result has been an increased measure of assurance against a runaway inflation or a drastic decline in the value of the dollar.

Nixon Afraid Khrushchev Blasts May Hurt His Political Chances

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — Today the British electorate will decide whether American influence can re-elect a Prime Minister and whether the politically motivated TV program between Ike and Macmillan will pay off. So far the reactions have been bad.

Meanwhile the political pros are watching to see whether another international TV debate will help or hurt the chances of another well-known candidate—Richard M. Nixon. The kitchen debate Nixon held with Premier Khrushchev in Moscow undoubtedly helped him. But since then Khrushchev's continued pokes at Nixon have hurt, and the Vice President is reported by friends to be quite disturbed over it.

At Camp David, Mr. K. kept taking digs at Nixon, face-to-face. He liked Eisenhower immensely, but made it clear he considered Nixon a fence-straddler who wanted to pose as both the friend of the Soviet people and the critic of the Soviet government at one and the same time.

The American people are so strong for peace, and public opinion polls show a majority in favor of the Khrushchev visit, that Nixon actually fears the continued enmity of Mr. K. may help determine who will be the GOP candidate for President.

Super-Secret Ballplayers
Next to the Pentagon Building, about the tightest "security" precinct in the nation's capital is Arlington Hall in suburban

Virginia, where secret cables are coded and decoded.

At the gate of this fenced-in citadel there appeared not long ago a small group of men of youthful build, bearing satchels and other paraphernalia.

"What's your business here?" demanded a soldier guard.

"We've got a baseball game with the team on the post," replied a spokesman for the visiting group.

"Well, you can't just walk in the gate because you play baseball," announced the guard. "We have security regulations. You'll have to wait until I can get you clearance from the manager of the Arlington Hall team."

As the guard was putting through a phone call, he inquired: "What government agency do you guys represent?"

"We're the FBI baseball team," was the reply.

Steel — A Public Utility?
Secretary of Labor James Mitchell waged a lone, backstage battle in the Eisenhower administration against invoking the Taft-Hartley Law to halt the steel strike.

Most top presidential advisers considered Taft-Hartley the only solution to the deadlocked strike negotiations, but Mitchell has been consistently opposed. He advised the White House that the steelworkers might well go out on strike again after the 80-day cooling-off period had elapsed, unless they win real work and wage concessions.

If this — a resumption of the strike — should occur, Mitchell has told the White House, Congress may pass a law regulating the steel industry as a semi-public utility, with government controls on both work stoppages and steel production. Neither industry nor labor would welcome such action, the Labor Secretary warned the White House. Privately, he issued the same warning to both sides in the strike negotiations.

Football And High Finance
This week marks the 25th anniversary of the Securities and Exchange Commission and some of the famed figures who helped build it will dine in Washington to commemorate FDR's move to protect investors from Wall Street wolves. At the dinner will be Fred Pecora, whose probe of Wall Street broke up the J. P. Morgan partnership; Justice William O. Douglas of the Supreme Court; Ganson Purcell, Abe Fortas, former Under Secretary of the Interior, and perhaps Joe Kennedy, father of Sen. Jack Kennedy.

Simultaneously, the SEC which the above celebrants helped to create, has cracked down on a famous name in football, Frank Leahy, former coach at Notre Dame. Thereby hangs a tale of what can happen to sports figures, actors, writers et al when they barge into the field of high finance.

When Leahy retired from Notre Dame and football he got an offer to become vice president of Hamilton "C" and Gas Co. It looked like a good way for Leahy to support his wife and eight kids, Ex-Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado, golfing partner of President Eisenhower, was on the board. Leahy was promised a big future.

He soon found that his job was to get out and sell stock. This he did to such old football friends as Forest Evashevski, former all-America at Michigan; and to Congressman "Tip" O'Neill who was at Boston College when Leahy coached there. O'Neill bought 3,000 shares of Hamilton Oil and Gas at $1.50.

Then suddenly it was found that the company itself bought stock back for only 50 cents; also that it hadn't been too careful about registering with the SEC. The SEC has now slapped a stop order on the sale of more stock. This happens not infrequently. But the fact that Frank Leahy was involved made headlines.

Actually SEC officials don't plan to be too hard on Leahy. They know he's better at football than high finance. They also know a coach can't continue at football indefinitely.

Price Of Success

By Leslie Gould

The Du Pont company's troubles with the Government are the price of success.

If Du Pont hadn't done so well and the same for General Motors there would have been no problems.

In being so successful the two also made the outstanding contribution by private industry in raising living standards, in providing jobs, in paying taxes and in winning two world wars.

The du Ponts — now speaking of the family — took a long gamble in 1917 and 1919. They had the company they headed invest $49 million in General Motors and added another $81 million, part of this in a rescue operation during the 1921 financial troubles of William C. Durant, GM's founder.

Today that investment is worth nearly $3 1/2 billion — $3,465,000,000 to be exact. In addition there have been the dividends paid over the years by GM.

To put it another way, the 63 million GM shares cost Du Pont about $2.09 a share. The current market for GM shares is $55.

The public has had the same opportunities for making money, on a relatively smaller scale, of course. A person who bought 100 shares of GM in 1917 at a cost of $7,450 today would have 7,500 shares, worth $412,500.

The public had another opportunity to get in on the ground floor in GM. That was in 1932. The then stock was selling at $7.65 1/2. The purchase of 100 shares at that year's low would have cost $762.50. Today that investor would have 600 shares worth $33,000.

Incidentally, Du Pont in 1933 sold 81,500 GM shares.

An investor in Du Pont, who bought four shares of the then stock for a total price of $1,000 in 1917, today would have 236.84 shares worth at today's market $65,494.20, plus good dividends and a 1935 payment of 1/5th of a share of GM.

The investor who waited until 1932 could have bought 100 shares of Du Pont for $2,200. Today he would have 400 shares worth $92,000. One thousand dollars invested in 1932 would be worth about $28,210 today.

For Du Pont, twice the investment in GM might have been open to question. The first time was 1921 when Durant was caught in the market crash and was forced out of the GM presidency. The other time was in 1932 — the dark days of the depression.

If it hadn't been for the Du Pont investment, GM might have gone the way of so many auto makers. Today only eight companies remain of the 1,854 started since the birth of the industry a little more than 60 years ago. A few passed out of the picture through merger, but most through liquidation.

Du Pont's contribution to General Motors was bringing it a new concept in management. Three years after it made its investment, the company was in trouble. Not only was Durant strapped, so was the motor company which he had put together. The du Ponts had to take over and Pierre du Pont, who had virtually retired, was made president.

Working in GM at that time was a young man by the name of Alfred P. Sloan Jr. He had gone to work as a draughtsman at Hyatt in 1895 on his graduation from M. I. T.

Hyatt was in financial difficulties and Sloan got his father to invest some money in the enterprise and in 1897 Sloan became the president and general manager.

When Durant merged Hyatt into United Motors in 1916, he made Sloan president of the combination. In 1918, when United merged with GM, Sloan became a vice president. This was the position he held when Pierre du Pont succeeded Durant in 1920.

Two years after he had assumed the presidency, Pierre du Pont stepped aside for Sloan. That was the smartest move the du Ponts ever made, next to its GM investment and the development of the chemical company.

Sloan made General Motors. When he took over the presidency the company accounted for around 12 per cent of the industry's business. Under Sloan it climbed to better than 50 per cent and it was no pushover.

The Government's attack on Du Pont's GM investment goes back to 1927, when the Federal Trade Commission and the Justice Department both studied the matter. The present case was brought in 1949. The Du Pont company won in the lower court, but the Supreme Court on a Government appeal reversed the district court by a 4 to 2 vote. This was in 1957. With the final ruling by Federal Judge Walter LaBuy, it has 10 years to resolve the issue.

A puzzled lady entered a sporting goods store and asked, "Where do I go for a low handicap?"

"A low handicap?" repeated the clerk.

"That's right," nodded the lady. "It's to be a surprise for his birthday. He always says that he'd rather have that than anything else in the world!"

"Since I married," a brokerage clerk confided to his friend, "I've learned how to meet expenses. My wife introduced them to me."

Two sorority sisters were confiding all over double nut sundaes. "How did you like the bridge party those Delta Sigs threw Tuesday night?" giggled one. "It was wonderful," said the other, "but then those evil-minded campus policemen came and looked under the bridge!"

T. O. writes: A barking dog sends me into a frenzy, whereas it doesn't bother the owner. Why? Would it help me to own a barking dog?

REPLY

Why ask for trouble? You may become immune to the sound, but you'll then worry about the neighbors. Noise has a different effect on different persons. The one who is high-strung is easily disturbed whereas a calm, placid individual remains unperturbed.

In addition, barking may be music to the ears of a dog lover but a pain to those who dislike animals. On the other hand a dog that barks for no apparent reason lacks training or is being neglected. He is a neighborhood nuisance.

Garrett Demo Womens Clubs Hear Legislator

Mrs. Schweinhart Is Guest Speaker

OAKLAND — Mrs. Margaret Schweinhart, a member of the House of Delegates from Montgomery County, was guest speaker at a dinner meeting of the Democratic Womens Clubs of Garrett County, Monday at Mt. Lake Park Hotel, Mt. Lake Park.

Some 40 people were on hand to hear Mrs. Schweinhart talk on the subject of "How to Use Our Influence Effectively in Having Legislation Passed." She told club members that Senators and Delegates sent to Annapolis are the voice of the voters and citizens should not hesitate in expressing their views on legislation they have acted favorably upon.

Mrs. Schweinhart touched upon the problems of the Inland Fish and Game Commission and the State Planning Commission.

Of much interest to all attending the meeting were her views on the problems of the aging and mental health problems. "Too many of our old people are being committed to state mental hospitals who are just sent there. These could be taken care of in nursing homes and thus leave room in the state hospitals for the really mentally ill," she declared.

Another of Mrs. Schweinhart's interests is the State Forestry Camps such as those established in Garrett County. She feels there for more of them where boys would get plenty of good hard work to keep them occupied and an opportunity to adjust themselves.

Accompanying Mrs. Schweinhart to Garrett County was Mrs. Alice Hostetter, a member of the State Central Committee of Montgomery County.

Among other notable at the meeting were Senator Bernard J. Gonder, Delegates Elbert Buckard, County Commissioner Elra Garrett, Chairman of the State Central Committee Lewis Hutson and a newly appointed member to the Garrett County Memorial Hospital Board, Harry Seggie.

The president, Mrs. E. I. Baumgartner, announced there will be an annual meeting of the United Democratic Women's Clubs on Thursday and Friday, November 4 and 5 at the Emerson Hotel in Baltimore. All interested in going should contact Mrs. Baumgartner.

Beryl Presbyterian Chapel To Be Dedicated Sunday

BERYL—Beryl Presbyterian Chapel will be the scene of a rededication service Sunday, October 11, according to the pastor Rev. Robert M. Campbell. The 11-day School will meet at 9:30 a. m.

The dedication program will be held at 3 p. m. followed by a fellowship supper at 5 p. m. Dr. Charles C. Cowsett, executive secretary of the Presbytery of Winchester will speak at 6:30 p. m. All members and friends of the Beryl congregation are invited to the services and the supper.

The first Chapel services were held in Beryl by Rev. S. M. Engle, pastor of the Piedmont Presbyterian Church from 1893 to 1902. Services were held in the school as early as 1899. Mr. Engle received seven members in 1900.

Regular Services Since 1899

Sunday School and preaching services have been held here regularly since 1899 with the chapel being conducted as an outpost of the Piedmont Presbyterian Church. The chapel, a building of wood frame, was erected across the street from the school in 1902.

Dr. Woodworth states in his history that the building had a "history." The people of the community have been summoned for many years to Sunday School and to church services by the bell in that belfry. Pastoral services have been provided by the pastors of the Piedmont church. Many Presbyterians who received their early training in the Beryl Chapel and Sunday School are now active in the church in Piedmont.

Members of the Beryl congregation have always taken pride in their house of worship. In 1947 an extensive program of renovation resulted in the decoration of the inside and out with new roof and hardwood floor in the sanctuary.

Aided By Presbytery

In 1951 the presbytery desired more room for the Sunday School. In 1952 Winchester Presbytery gave the congregation a gift of $1,500 from the funds of the committee on church extensions to be used in the expansion program. This was used, along with other funds to elevate the building and to excavate a basement beneath the sanctuary.

In 1953 a gas fired hot-air furnace was installed. In 1955 a vestibule was built on the front of the chapel, providing a class room at the right of the entrance to the sanctuary and to the left a stairway to the basement. The space beneath the vestibule is used as a kitchen.

In 1956 this section was beautified by the addition of a portico with iron railings. During the next two years the lawn was filled and graded and seeded with grass. Walks were built to the front and the basement entrance, and an acoustical ceiling was placed in the basement. More recently a glass was put into the windows of the sanctuary and a tile floor has been laid in the basement. The walls and the hardwood floor in the sanctuary have been refinished. The seats have been finished in a light oak and the chapel has been painted inside and out.

Church Is Debt Free

Improvements made in the past nine years have cost $12,161.70. This amount includes the gift from the presbytery and a gift from the church in Piedmont. The rest of the money has been provided by the people who worship in the chapel, and there is no debt remaining. All bills have been paid.

As a result of these improvements the Beryl community has been provided with a home of worship that is attractive from every standpoint and a credit to any modern community. It is splendidly equipped for worship and Sunday School services.

Wynn, Podres To Hurl Today's World Series Contest

Sixth Game To Be Played In Chicago

Sunny, Cool Weather Forecast; Dodgers Remain Favorites

By JACK HAND

CHICAGO (AP) — With partly sunny weather and temperatures in the 70s forecast, the sixth World Series game will be played in Comiskey Park Thursday. The 39-year-old Early Wynn will try to hold the fort for the desperate Chicago White Sox and Johnny Podres will attempt to close it out for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Both clubs flew into town in the wee small hours after a night plane ride from Los Angeles where attendance records fell on each of the three sunny afternoons.

Instead of the full-throated "charge" cheers from 92,000 fans, Comiskey will echo with the "go go" screams of 48,000 customers as the Sox try to level the series at 3 games each.

Favored To Win

Rescued by the clutch pitching of Bob Shaw and Dick Donovan and the spectacular running catch by Jim Rivera in Tuesday's fifth game, the White Sox were the 11-10 choice to win Thursday. The Dodgers, however, remain a solid 2-1 favorite to win the series.

Only three clubs ever have bounced back from a 3-1 deficit to win a world championship. One of them, the 1903 Boston Red Sox did it in the best-of-nine series. The 1925 Pittsburgh Pirates rallied in 1925 against Washington. And of course the New York Yankees did it against Milwaukee last year.

Podres was Manager Walter Alston's choice to work in Chicago, if necessary, even before the fifth game. The 27-year-old left-hander from Witherbee, N.Y., was a 4-3 winner in the second game at Comiskey Park when the Dodgers rallied after he departed for pinch hitter Chuck Essegian. He was a two-time winner for the Dodgers in 1955 when they captured their only World Series.

Likes To Pitch

"Johnny likes to pitch at Comiskey Park," said Alston. "He can use his change of pace more than he can at home. In the Coliseum he is reluctant to use it, especially against right-handed batters. He is a better pitcher when he has more room."

If Podres fails him, Alston has right-handed Don Drysdale ready for a seventh game on Friday. Of course, the handy man at all times will be young Larry Sherry who worked in three of the first five games and allowed only one run in seven innings.

Wynn has been manager Al Lopez' money pitcher all season. The husky right-hander from Nokomis, Fla., led the majors with 22 victories and was the only 20-game winner in the American League as he and Shaw pitched the White Sox to the pennant.

It was Wynn who worked the 11-0 opening game slaughter of the Dodgers until his right elbow tightened and he was removed in the eighth inning. Shoddy defensive play by his usually alert mates cost him dearly Sunday when he was removed in the third inning, trailing 4-0 in a game eventually won on Gil Hodges' home run off Gerry Staley.

Makes Fine Comeback

Hodges, making a fine comeback after a so-so year in 1957, is the leading hitter among the regulars in the first five games with eight hits in 18 trips for a .444 average.

Nellie Fox, who came within one hit of tying a series record with five straight hits Sunday and Monday, has been the most consistent batter for Chicago with eight hits and a .400 average. Shortstop Luis Aparicio and first baseman Ted Kluszewski have seven hits each.

The White Sox faced the future with much more confidence now that they can finish play in their home park with its more comfortable outfield distances.

Instead of 251 feet to a screen in left, the mileage at Comiskey is 352 feet. It also is 352 feet in right and 415 feet to the bullpen in center. However, five of the seven home runs hit so far were slugged at Comiskey.

Syracuse Holds Lead In College Grid Defenses

Orange Also Second In Total Offense

NEW YORK (UPI) — Syracuse University, 11th ranked in this week's United Press International ratings, holds an almost unprecedented domination of defense honors among major colleges.

According to Wednesday's NCAA service bureau figures, the Orangemen led in total defense, rushing and pass defense. Syracuse also was runnerup to North Texas State in total offense, third in rushing offense and sixth in scoring.

The Auburn team of 1958 is the only other squad in 13 years to head all three defensive departments at the same time.

Syracuse, with victories over Kansas and Maryland, has held the opposition to a combined total of only 96 yards in 79 tries (51 rushing and 45 passing).

The 1947 Kansas team is the only other major college ever to yield less than 100 yards in its first two games.

Pennsylvania trails Syracuse in total defense and forward pass defense while Miami of Florida follows the Orangemen in rushing defense.

Penn has allowed the opposition 245 total yards in two games. The Red and Blue defense has given up an average of 33.5 yards to opposing passers, far behind Syracuse's 22.5 mark.

The Miami Hurricane line has been dented for only 77 yards on the ground, following Syracuse's 25.5-per-game average with 38.5 yielded in two games.

North Texas State, replacing Army as leader in total offense with 1,276 yards, also retained its rushing offense leadership with 1,116 yards in three games played. Arizona State is second and Syracuse third.

Army, held to only 32 yards on the ground by Illinois, passed for 187 yards against the Illini to head the forward passing offense statistics with 250.5 per game. Bill Norman has propelled Stanford into second place with a 194.7 average.

Name Is Corrected

The incorporated name of the boys club on Columbia Street was incorrectly reported as the Boys Athletic Club, Inc., in yesterday's Cumberland NEWS.

The organization which sponsors a little league baseball team and a rifle club is named the Columbia Street Wildcats, Inc. Incorporators are Julian Rotruck, Marion Ruhl and George Pfeiffer.

Navy To Attend

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — Half of Navy's 3,800-man brigade of midshipmen will be on hand Saturday when the Middle football team plays Syracuse in the Oyster Bowl at Norfolk, Va.

Georgia Tech Challenged By Cumberland U.

Students Remember 222-0 Loss In 1916

ATLANTA (UPI) — Forty-three years ago Wednesday Georgia Tech humiliated little Cumberland University in the most lopsided game in football history. Some diehards still hope for revenge.

A group of students at the Lebanon, Tenn., college last week sent Tech Athletic Director Bobby Dodd a telegram challenging the Yellow Jackets to a game. They explained they wanted a chance to get even for the last time the two schools met on the football field—back on Oct. 7, 1916.

Dodd, accepting the challenge with a straight face, said that Tech already has scheduled all games permitted for the season, and he regretfully rejected the proposal for a game with Cumberland U.

You would think the Cumberland students would just as soon let sleeping dogs lie. For that 1916 game was the one in which Tech set football's all-time scoring record — beating Cumberland by the score of 222-0.

Yes, 222-0. Tech, then in the midst of a string of 33 games without a loss, had beaten Mercer the previous week 61-0 and Cumberland was the second game on the schedule. The Jackets scored nine touchdowns in each of the first two periods to lead 126-0 at halftime, then let up slightly to score only 96 points in the second half.

There were many executioners that crisp early fall Saturday. Halfback G. E. Strupper scored from 20 yards out on Tech's first offensive play and went on to lead high executioner with eight touchdowns and a conversion for a total of 49 points.

Quarterback Jim Pears set a still-standing national record by kicking 18 consecutive extra points in the first half and added three touchdowns for 36 points.

Cumberland doesn't field a football team any more. Those students who asked Tech for a rematch would probably have been less bold if they had been in the stands at Grant Field here 43 years ago.

The Acetates took over first place in the C. S. Staff Bowling League last night by turning back the Celaperms, 3-0, while the Arnels were bowing to the Fortians, 2-1. The triple loss showed the Celaperms from a tie for first place into last place in the four-team circuit.

High scorers were Pat Paddelford with 415 and Marguerite Mulvan with 367 for the Celaperms; Sylvia Sisk with 423 and Byron Bonebreak, 393, for the Acetates; Bun Serf, 214-520, and Dot Carnes, 419, for the Fortians; and Bud Dickerhoff, 411, and Mayme Street, 389, for the Arnels. The standings:

Acetates ..... 7 5 Fortians ..... 6 5
Arnels ..... 6 6 Celaperms ..... 5 7

Frisky Gloria Surprise Winner

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. (AP) — Hel-Dee Farm's Frisky Gloria, a 32-1 shot in the straight pool, completed a $203.20 daily double at Shenandoah Downs Wednesday night when she surprised in the second race.

J. Frank Northcutt, "Mr. Double" at this night meeting, had ridden the first half again, this time aboard the $3 favorite, Faunus.

Charley McKee brought Frisky Gloria in to complete the second $200 payoff since this meet opened. Frisky Gloria who survived a photo with Sal's Ar, another outsider, paid $66.40, $35.60 and $11.60. Sal's Ar paid $12 and $6, while the show horse Goobar $6 returned $3.40.

Northcutt escaped injury in the third race when his mount, Tumbles Tot, fell making the turn for home and threw him to the track.

DO BOTH SCENT VICTORY?—Managers of World Series opponents look at the sky as if each smells the scent of victory in the air when they paused for a greeting during yesterday's work-outs of the two clubs at Comiskey Park in Chicago. Los Angeles and the White Sox will meet in the sixth game of the series today at 2 p. m. (EDT). At left is Manager Al Lopez of the White Sox and at right is Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers.

Open Champs To Miss Ryder Cup Matches

Snell, Littler Not Eligible

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK (AP)—The biggest international golf competition in the United States this year—Britain vs. the United States for the Ryder Cup—will be played next month without the Open champions of either nation participating.

Also missing from this biennial test between the top professionals will be the British PGA champion, David Snell, and the top tournament winner on the U.S. pro circuit, Gene Littler.

Littler and U.S. Open champion Bill Casper likely will get an opportunity to test their skill against the Britons, however, as an ambitious program of competitors has been arranged for the visitors between their arrival here Oct. 20 and the Cup match at Palm Desert, Calif., Nov. 7-8.

The U.S. team was selected entirely on the basis of points earned in tournaments between Aug. 1, 1957 and Sept. 7, 1959. Both Casper and Littler became pros in 1954 and haven't been full-fledged members long enough to earn many points.

Gary Player, the South African winner of the British Open, isn't eligible for this competition and Snell, 25-year-old surprise winner of the British PGA match play title, wasn't picked because his record otherwise wasn't impressive.

Seven of the ten Britons were selected under a point system and three by a committee. Eight of them were members of the 1957 team that beat the U.S. 7½-4½ at Lindrick, England.

The American side includes four of the 1957 players, four newcomers and Sam Snead and Cary Midgloff, who last played in the Cup matches in 1955.

The Ryder Cup matches, consisting of four foursomes and eight singles, will be played over the mountain-rimmed Eldorado Country Club course at Palm Desert.

Before going there, the Britons are scheduled to play in several other matches. Snead, who played in every Ryder Cup match from 1937 through 1955 and only lost once in singles, is captain of the U.S. team. It also includes Jack Burke, Dow Finsterwald, Doug Ford and Art Wall, survivors of the 1957 beating, and newcomers, Doug Ford and Art Wall, survivors of the 1957 beating, and newcomers Julius Boros, Jay Herbert, PGA champion Bob Rosburg and Mike Souchak.

The British side, headed by Dai Rees, who has had even more Ryder Cup experience than Snead, includes Peter Aliss, Ken Bousfield, Eric Brown, Norman Drew, Bernard Hunt, Peter Mills, Christy O'Connor, Dave Thomas and Harry Weetman.

Casper Favored At Hesperia

Littler, Rosburg To Vie In Open

HESPERIA, Calif. (UPI)—Billy Casper, fresh from a victory Sunday in the Oregon Centennial Open, is rated an early favorite to win the third annual $20,000 Hesperia Open starting Thursday.

Casper, the National Open titlist from Apple Valley, Calif., faces strong competition for the top prize of $2,000 from defending champion John McMullin of Fair Oaks, Calif.; Bob Rosburg of Palo Alto, Calif., the 1959 PGA king; and Gene Littler of San Diego, Calif., who finished second here last year. Littler set a course record of 62-10 under par in last year's tourney.

Other prominent pros entered include an oddy-matched pair, big George Bayer, the 240-pound former football star from San Gabriel, Calif., and Paul Harney, slender 145-pounder from Worcester, Mass. Both are among the longest hitters in golf, despite the disparity in their avoirdupois.

Young McMullin won last year's tournament with a 72-hole total of 271 on this picturesque high desert oasis course which is dotted with five lakes.

The 72-hole tournament ends Sunday.

Grimsley Picks Sooners Over Texas Eleven

Ga. Tech Favored To Beat Tennessee

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Tip on how to lose weight: Become a football seer and gulp ulcer pills.

We shaved off 10 pounds last week—how can you figure Michigan State and Illinois?—and our picking percentage dropped to .725 on a 37-14 mark.

More ulcer bait this weekend: Oklahoma 20, Texas 8; The Longhorns' goal line finally is cracked by a boy named Bobby Boyd.

Georgia Tech 8, Tennessee 7; Bobby Dodd, the Tech headmaster, is an ex-Vol. This is a "must" game for him.

Notre Dame 25, California 7: The fighting Irish sophomores matured plenty in that Purdue shellacking.

Army 21, Penn State 14: The Cadets don't figure to make as many mistakes as they did against roused-up Illinois.

Louisiana State 20, Miami (Fla.) 13: The No. 1 team has a job on its hands but the Chinese bandits should handle it.

Princeton 14, Pennsylvania 8: A vote for the reliable old single wing in an important Ivy League contest.

Iowa 19, Michigan State 6: The Hawkeyes still must be figured in the Big Ten title picture.

Washington 28, Stanford 14: The Huskies have shown a lot of muscle in winning three straight.

Arkansas 14, Baylor 0: The Razorbacks have yielded only one touchdown in three games.

Navy 18, Syracuse 7: The Midshipmen are a much better team than that which lost to SMU.

Northwestern 23, Minnesota 7: Even without Dick Thornton, the Wildcats are too stout for the struggling Gophers.

Mississippi 13, Vanderbilt 0: Ole Miss remains unbeaten, untied, unscorred on and almost unnoticed.

Packers Back Burned In Home

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Full-back Jim Taylor of the Green Bay Packers suffered second degree burns Wednesday night while extinguishing a fire in the kitchen of his home.

Taylor, burned on the right hand and right foot by hot grease, hobbled to the Packers practice field this morning but is a doubtful starter in next Sunday's National Football League game here against the San Francisco 49ers.

Mrs. Taylor was frying potatoes on the kitchen stove Tuesday night when the grease ignited. Taylor, in stocking feet, snatched the frying pan off the stove.

Crisler May Head New Grid League

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Athletic Director Fritz Crisler of the University of Michigan has been asked to become commissioner of the newly-formed American Football League, it was learned here.

Asked about the report, Crisler would say only that "my interests have been felt out but I have been, and still am, non-committal about the matter."

The American Football League has lined up six franchises and plans to begin operations in 1960.

Flyweight Title Bout Postponed

TOKYO (AP)—World flyweight champion Pascual Perez' title defense against Japan's Sadao Yano Wednesday was postponed from Oct. 22 to Nov. 5.

Perez is from Argentina.

Bender Wants To Buy Nats

Offers $7 Million To Washington Club

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former U.S. Sen. George H. Bender of Ohio says he wants to buy the Washington Senators if Calvin Griffith is willing to sell the American League club.

Bender said he would go as high as seven million dollars to buy the club and keep it in Washington.

He made his offer during renewed discussion of possibilities that the Washington franchise may be transferred to Minneapolis.

He said he tried to buy the club about three years ago when the possible shift to Minneapolis was first discussed.

Griffith, in Los Angeles attending the World Series, disclosed Tuesday that the latest offer from Minneapolis has been received but said he has not yet seen it. He indicated that the offer will be taken up with the board of directors after the series.

Billy Pierce Nurses Hope For World Series Start

Southpaw Ace Has Been Overlooked

By MILTON RICHMAN

CHICAGO (UPI)—Southpaw Billy Pierce, the "forgotten man" of the World Series, nursed a long-shot hope today he might get a call for the seventh game—if and when there is one.

Ordinarily considered the ace of the White Sox pitching staff, the 32-year-old left hander who has been with the club longer than any other player, has been just another one of the supermen during the five games played so far.

He hurled three hitless relief innings during the fourth game won by the Dodgers, 5-4, and then pitched to one batter for

Billy Conners Offense Leader

Salem Quarterback Gains 382 Yards

BECKLEY, W. Va. (UPI)—Freshman quarterback Billy Conners of Salem College is the new leader in total offense in the West Virginia Conference.

Executive Secretary George Springer said Wednesday that the Labelle, Pa. product had amassed 382 yards in three games to overtake teammate John Meegan.

Conners also leads the conference in passing with 367 yards, 180 of them coming last week in Salem's 25-0 victory over Potomac State.

Meegan retained the rushing lead with all of his 258 yards gained on the ground. However, Glenville's Elsworth Buck is second with 198 yards with the Potomac State game missing from the Pioneer statistics.

West Virginia Tech's Charlie Gossman moved into second place in total offense with 294 yards and also is the top passer in completion percentage. He has found the mark in seven of his 10 tosses.

Meegan's single touchdown against Potomac State gave him 30 points to head the scoring race. Bob Young of Tech is second with 19 points.

Dave Wiegand, also of Salem, has caught 11 passes for 261 yards and two touchdowns to lead in that department. Salem's Darwyn Grover is tops in punting with a 54-yard average in six boots.

Goren On Bridge

North-South vulnerable. Southing to four no trump. South added his 18 high card points to the minimum of 15 assured by partner's response and reached the figure of 33, enough to justify a slam and to give mathematical assurance that the opponents could not have two aces.

The lead of the ten of diamonds was won in dummy with the jack. Declarer led a heart to the king. West took the king with his ace, declarer would have observed that he had only one quick heart trick. His hope for the 12th trick, therefore, would have rested entirely with the spade finesse. He would, therefore, have had to fall back on this play which would have succeeded. West, properly sensing the situation played a low heart.

Declarer could hardly be regarded as glib when he decided to mark East with the ace of hearts. Surely that seemed a better chance than the spade finesse. He therefore entered the dummy and first ran the clubs. When nothing revealing took place, he led another low heart. West promptly took two tricks to set the contract.

Turkeys are natives of North and Central America.

Just about the time when by repetition and emphasis the student has been impressed with the importance of putting his aces on kings and queens, along comes today's hand in which the act of not putting the ace on the king brought about the defeat of a slam contract.

The bidding was short and to the point. Six no trump was reached by the process of simple arithmetic. South opened with one no trump and North, holding a balanced hand with 15 points, properly invited a slam by raising.

D.C. Firm Low Bidder On Resurfacing Span

BALTIMORE (AP)—The American Asphalt Co. of Washington submitted the low bid Wednesday on a State Roads Commission contract for resurfacing a section of the Potomac River Bridge and its eastern approach in Charles County.

The Washington firm, one of two bidders, filed a low bid of $28,137 to resurface the 1.51-mile section. The roads commission also announced the awarding of a contract for an Eastern Shore Highway project.

The incisor teeth of the pocket gopher grow at the rate of one inch a week. His incessant gnawing keeps them worn down for practical use.

Tax Exemption For Elderly Folks Tightened

Application Forms Now Available

All-gany County taxpayers over 65 years of age who want to apply for county real estate tax exemption for 1960 were reminded yesterday by James G. Stevenson, clerk to the county commissioners, that application forms are now available.

At the same time, Mr. Stevenson cautioned taxpayers that House Bill 768, passed by the General Assembly earlier this year and now included as Chapter 502 of the Acts of 1959, was adopted to plug loopholes in the original tax exemption legislation.

This year about 700 taxpayers with property assessed at about $1,700,000 are exempt from all county real estate and property taxes. Next year the number is expected to be much lower as a result of the more stringent regulations in Chapter 502.

Changes Noted
One change in the law is that the elderly taxpayer must have a total gross income of less than $1,200 a year. The original measure called for $100 a month as the net income.

These tax exemptions will no longer apply to all county real estate taxes. In the future they will be allowed to have the sum of $3,500 deducted from the assessed valuation for the county real estate taxes. Another change in the measure takes into consideration the earnings of all members of the family living in the premises for which the exemption is claimed. The new provision is that the exemption shall not apply to any property where the aggregate income of all persons residing there and related to the applicant is in excess of $3,600 in a calendar year.

Another change denies exemption to any person receiving public welfare assistance benefits. It was planned that the state augment the welfare assistance payments to persons owning their own property, thereby, in effect, paying the county taxes. Exempting such property from county taxes simply kept the county from getting usual funds from the state.

One Liberalization
Still another new provision takes into consideration tenants by the entirety, in which the survivor acquires the property. Tenants by the entirety are allowed the exemption only when the gross income of the tenants does not exceed $1,200 a year. Only one exemption is granted for such tenants too.

One liberalization in House Bill 768 enables any bona fide resident of the county for the preceding five years who is above 65 and has a total gross income of less than $1,200 a year. The original bill provided that the taxpayer had to have lived in the particular house where he now resides for five years.

The tax exemption applications must be filed with the county commissioners before midnight December 10.

House Bill 768 was a bi-partisan measure introduced by two Republicans and two Democrats in the County Delegation. It was the joint effort of Delegates Noel Speer Cook and Fred B. Driscoll, Republicans, and Thomas P. Conlon Jr. and William Walsh, Democrats.

Wage Floor Provision Repealed

Another change in Cumberland's charter became effective Tuesday, according to City Clerk Wallace G. Ullery.

It is Charter Amendment Resolution No. 10, which was passed by the Mayor and Council on August 17 to repeal an act of the General Assembly setting wages in effect January 1, 1953, as the minimum wages to be paid to city workers.

City officials said the change was made in the charter to pave the way for wage classification.

City officials were asked by the Police and Firemen's Welfare Association last month to reconsider the resolution and adopt the same base pay safeguards as were in effect in 1953.

The group also urged that when action is taken it be done by resolution, which would make it a part of the city charter, and not by ordinance.

Grand Jurors Urge New Jail, Bus Safety

George Washington Memorial Cited

A recommendation for a new county jail, increased school bus safety and a progress report on the proposed George Washington Memorial in Cumberland were highlights of the five-page report submitted to Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris yesterday by the October grand jury in Allegany County Circuit Court.

The grand jurors examined 31 witnesses during three days of activity and returned eight indictments. None of the indictments had been placed on the court's open docket yesterday afternoon.

John J. Rowan, president of the Board of County Commissioners, appeared before the grand jury to discuss the present condition of the county jail. The report said that he had informed the grand jurors that preliminary plans had been started by the commissioners to construct a modern building on the County Home property to include a jail and other county offices.

Jail Obsolete
The grand jury believes the present county jail is so obsolete that major repairs would not be feasible.

Concurrence with the April grand jury recommendation for a clerk in the sheriff's office to handle administrative or clerical work now done by deputies was cited in yesterday's report. In this manner, deputies could be utilized full time in police work.

Installation of radio equipment in the cruisers of the sheriff and his deputies also was urged, as was done by the January and April grand juries. Mr. Rowan said that the county commissioners are planning to link the sheriff's cars and the road department trucks in one radio network for increased efficiency of operations.

The grand jury also commended Sheriff Paul C. Haberlein for the excellent manner in which he is conducting his office under conditions "which we consider adverse to fully efficient operation."

Concerning school bus safety, the grand jury advocated that the State Board of Education adopt regulations designed to require periodic inspection of all school buses and to require that school bus operators meet much higher standards than those required for ordinary drivers. School buses now are required to undergo three inspections each school year but they are at announced times and places.

"The grand jury further believes that all school buses should be equipped with flares and evacuation drills and other safety measures should be adopted and continuously practiced for the protection of school children," the report stated.

Court House Repairs
The grand jury had several recommendations concerning the Court House itself. Repairs are needed on the law library floor, second floor hallway and third floor hall. Both sides of the stairway leading to the basement should have railings too. Repainting of the Election Board office and equipping it with fluorescent lighting fixtures also was urged. This would complete the basement modernization program.

Safety treads on the stairway between the first and second floors were urged.

Condition of the County Infirmary, County Home and Sylvan Retreat was considered excellent and the superintendents of the institutions were commended.

The grand jury commended J. William Hunt, chairman of the George Washington memorial committee, for "his untiring efforts and public spirited acceptance of this project. "We are of the opinion that without Mr. Hunt's able and diligent leadership this memorial could not be achieved," the grand jurors wrote.

Mr. Hunt has obtained approximate costs of a memorial from the National Sculpture Society of New York. Senator J. Glenn Beall and Congressman John R. Foley have introduced legislation authorizing and directing the federal government to provide up to $100,000 for a memorial on the site of Fort Cumberland. The Court House tract was the fort's parade ground.

Program Planned At Country Club

The Allegany County committee which promotes employment of the physically handicapped will hold its annual dinner meeting this evening at 7 o'clock in the Cumberland Country Club.

The presentation of citations and awards will be made by State Senator Charles M. See, chairman of the committee formed to work in conjunction with the Governor's Committee.

John Coburn, local counselor of the Maryland Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, Board of Education, will be the toastmaster.

Senator See will give the welcome remarks and introduction. After Mr. Coburn gives the report for the year, information on the training program and high school essay and poster contest news, Mr. See will outline the program for Employ the Handicapped Week and for the coming year.

Reports Scheduled

A report on activities of the Employment Security and comments on the regional meeting in Hagerstown will be given by Francis A. Kenney, manager of the local office.

"Employment of the Handicapped" will be topic of a talk to be given by George W. Kellar, supervisor of services for blind, Maryland Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, Board of Education.

Citations and awards for winning the county essay contest on "Hiring the Handicapped in Our Town" will be presented by Sen. See to Miss Carol Ann Dunlap, 521 Prince George Street, and Miss Alice Winslow Spoor, 1820 Bedford Street.

They graduated from Fort Hill High School last year and are now attending college.

Miss Carolyn Baucum of Frostburg, a senior at Beall High School, will be presented a citation and award for her winning poster entry.

To Give Awards

Mrs. Lucile Roeder, as acting mayor, will accept a citation and shield on behalf of the City of Cumberland for outstanding achievement in affording consideration to handicapped persons in city employment.

Other members of the committee who are expected to attend are Mrs. Anna I. Deremer, secretary; William Aldridge, F. Patrick Allender, Edwin M. Horchler, Arthur Howard, Robert Keach, Thomas Kilduff, Mrs. Jane Legge, Herbert McFarland, Paul Moore, Hudson Nix, William B. Orndorff, William Owens, C. W. Seasholtz, Samuel J. Weston, Mrs. Olive L. Workman and Robert Weaver.

The objectives of the Governor's Committee, formed at the request of the President of the United States, are to function primarily as an education and public relations instrument and to create a public awareness of the problems faced by handicapped individuals in finding employment; to cooperate with all groups, public and private, in promoting services for the handicapped; and to initiate and actively promote programs to stimulate hiring the handicapped.

Firemen Will Show Hazards

A demonstration of electrical hazards in the home will be given this evening at 8 in the Cresaptown fire hall in conjunction with Fire Prevention Week.

Cromwell Zembower of LaVale, secretary of the Allegany-Garrett Counties Volunteer Firemen's Association and an instructor for the Fire Extension Service of the University of Maryland, will be in charge of the demonstration, which is open to the public.

His wife, who is a past president of the Maryland firemen's auxiliary units, will also give a talk. Fire Chief Lewis Winter said.

The elementary and junior high school of the community will have its annual fire drill on Friday, when the school inspection also will be held. Assistant Fire Chief Joseph Wenrich will give talks on fire prevention to the pupils.

Organizations, including Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, will be invited to take a ride on the fire company pumper on Saturday.

Phone Workers To Start Building 'Happiness Pile'

Several telephone employees have volunteered their services to repair and mend any damaged articles which are donated.

Mrs. Janie Perdew and Mrs. Thomasine Clay are in charge of arrangements. Anyone who has a donation may call PA 2-9955 or PA 2-9941 and the request will be picked up by a telephone company employee.

The drive originally started with just telephone company employees donating, but before the collection period was over in the first drive, articles were received from all over the county.
